

Pelican Lake Ranch
Pool Rules

The Pelican Lake Ranch Swimming Pool and its surrounding premises (hereinafter referred to as the “Pool”) is owned, operated and managed by the Beebe Draw Farms Authority (hereinafter the “Authority”). Operation and management of the Pool is delegated to the Pool Manager and other pool staff by the Authority on a contractual basis. The following Rules are established for the safety and enjoyment of the Pool by all members and guests.

Please read and observe the following Rules. Parents are responsible for the safety and behavior of their children and their children’s guests. A member sponsoring a guest is responsible for the guest’s behavior. The Pool Manager and pool staff shall give direction to members and guests to assure compliance with these Rules. Any person not complying with direction given by the Pool Manager or pool staff, 1) may be asked to immediately leave the Pool, 2) may lose the privilege to use the Pool and other Authority amenities and 3) may forfeit any membership fees. Any member asked to leave the Pool may appeal that decision to the Community Manager. The Community Manager may refer appeals to the Authority Board of Directors.

All Persons using the Pool do so at their own risk.
No lifeguard is on duty.

As a condition for use of the Pool each member shall sign the Pool Use Waiver and Indemnity Agreement. The Authority assumes no responsibility for any accident or injury in connection with use of the Pool. Each person using the Pool must sign in daily upon entering the Pool using the sign-in sheet provided.

The Pool Manager or designated pool staff has full authority for the daily operation of the Pool. Complaints may be addressed to the Community Manager, Lisa Johnson at (303) 779-5710 (Monday through Friday 8AM to 5PM)
